1:1 Learning Support Assistant - SEN
ASAP
PART-TIME
One year fixed-term contract

We are seeking to recruit a 1:1 Learning Support Assistant to provide support for a Key Stage 3 (KS3) learner. The student has an Educational Health Care Plan (EHCP) and their diagnoses contributes to learning difficulties affecting her skills of receptive and expressive language; social communication; attention and concentration; auditory processing; executive function; and fine and gross motor skills. The role will primarily involve supporting the learner's successful transition to KS3 as well as her ability to access the curriculum. The candidate should have experience of working with neurodivergent individuals, preferably in a secondary school environment, as well as having good knowledge of IT.

Closing date: Friday 20th September 2024

Interviews – W/C Monday 23rd September 2024

Early applications are advised as the School reserves the right to appoint at any stage during the application process.
