Teaching and Learning at St Mary's

Professional trust and teacher autonomy are important to us. There is some flexibility when it comes to how and what you teach, and you will have more occasions to invest in creative planning and teaching, taking opportunities to follow the passions of the class whilst delivering an effective and enabling curriculum. We do not expect you to adhere to explicit and directed lesson formats, writing lesson objectives on the board or following a prescribed lesson order. When our students change class, they move in an orderly fashion to their next lesson, taking responsibility for their own behaviour. Our students are taught in an environment where engagement and quality work is expected of everyone. In addition, there are pedagogical benefits to smaller class sizes. You will get to know the unique attributes of each student, giving them increased levels of attention and building productive classroom relationships that enable your students to excel.

Staff professional development is given a high priority at St Mary's. The professional development process is aimed at cultivating great teachers who can flourish in our environment and meet our pedagogical standards. You will have the opportunity to contribute to working parties, a Teaching and Learning forum, speak at the regular 'Gold Nugget' best practice slot, write for the T&L newsletter and enjoy the buzz around our Open Classroom events. CPD is encouraged and generously funded. We want our teachers to be the best they can be and recognise that a culture of continuously learning is a crucial component of supporting and developing our staff.
